

Gen Model, Queue Point and PJM.com Planning Web Roadmaps

As of October 26, 2016

Gen Model allows users to submit generator data as required by NERC MOD-032.

Key Product Features

- Submit generator data if not already present.
- Confirm data for existing generators.

Release 2017.1

- Modifications to field validations and form positions

Impact	Outage
User Interface	1 hour

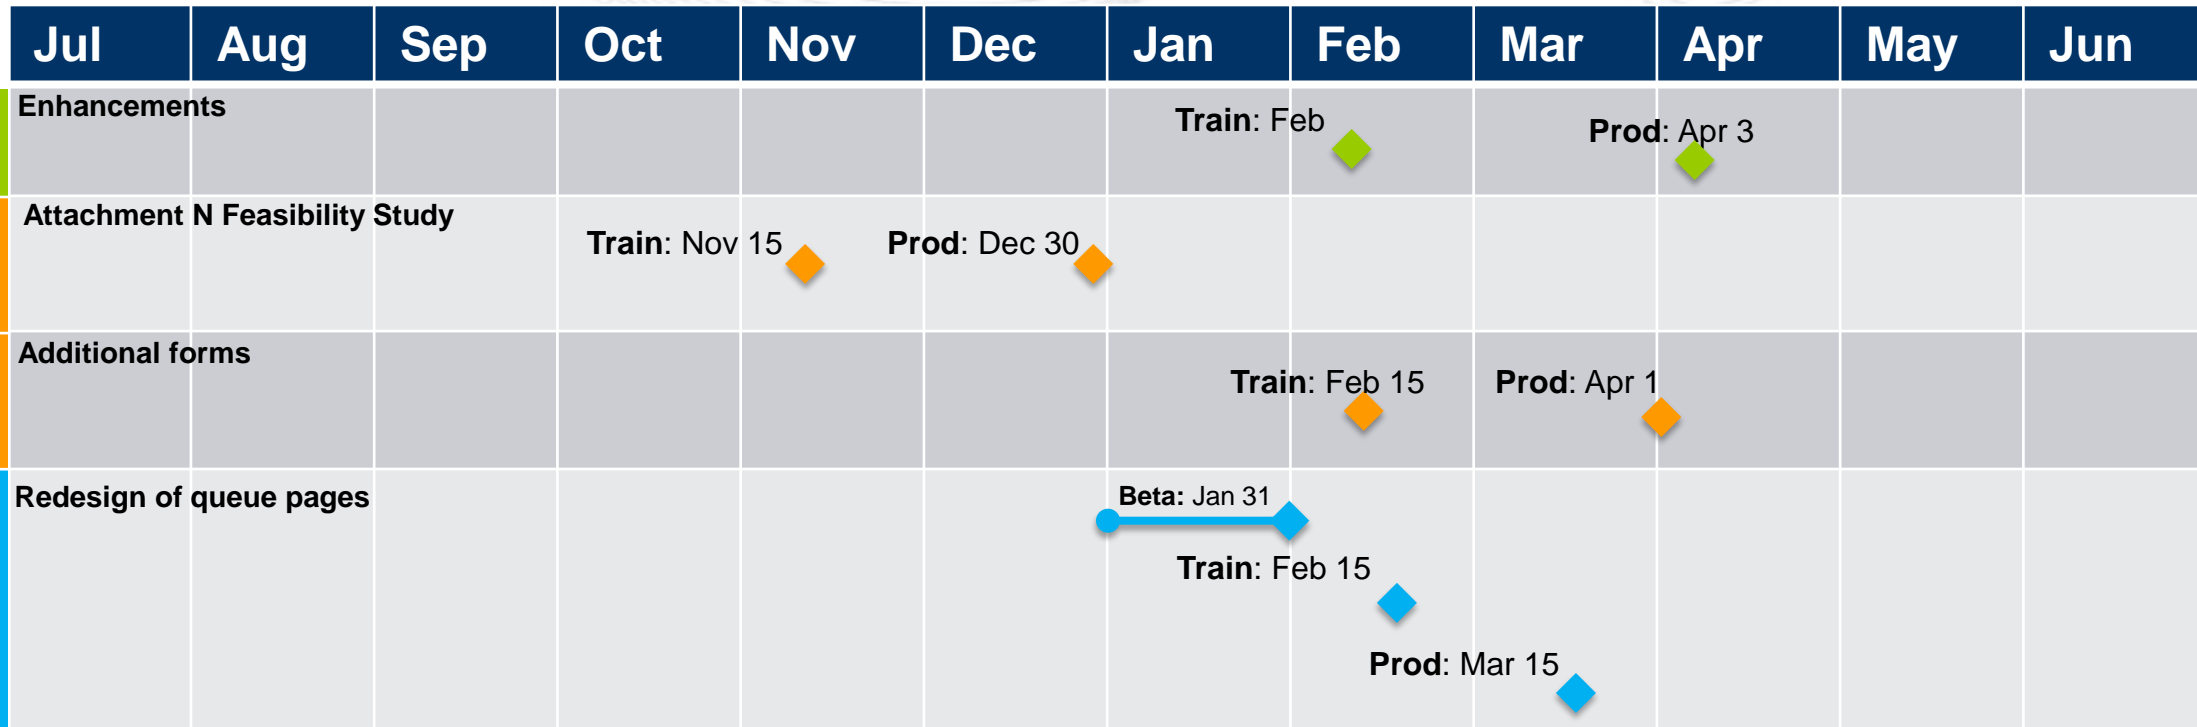

Queue Point is the replacement for the Data Sheet Application and web pages that handle all planning queue requests.

Key Product Features

- Replaces existing forms on Expansion Planning Process page
<http://pjm.com/planning/rtep-development/expansion-plan-process.aspx>.
- Users will need to register for CAM account and use new forms

Planning Apps 2016/2017 Roadmap

Legend

- Start Date
- End Date

Release 2017.1

- Provides new Attachment N, Feasibility Study, and Impact Study
- Existing Attachment N, Feasibility Study, and Impact Study forms will be retired.

Impact	Outage
User Interface	Four hours

Release 2017.2

- Adds all remaining forms
- Users will need to register for CAM account and use new forms

Impact	Outage
User Interface	One hour

This is a redesign of the PJM.com Planning Web to make it easier to use and find information about queues.

Key Product Features

- Consolidates active and withdrawn records for Generation, Merchant Transmission, and Auction Revenue Rights.

Release 2016.1

- Minor enhancements to make it easier to use data.

Impact	Outage
User Interface	30 minutes

Release 2017.1

- Retires old pages and puts all information into one screen.

Impact	Outage
User Interface	30 minutes

Queue Point Release 2016.1

- Production go-live was rescheduled to December 30th to allow more time for member testing.