

Cara Lewis

Associate General
Regulatory Counsel
PSEG Services Corporation

Cara Lewis is regulatory counsel for PSEG, a publicly-traded, diversified energy company with annual revenues of more than 9.7 billion. PSEG is New Jersey's oldest and largest regulated electric and gas delivery utilities, providing service to 2.2 million electric customers and 1.8 million gas customers. Cara counsels the company on wholesale market design and transmission issues as well as trading compliance matters.

Prior to joining PSEG, Cara worked at the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission's Office of Energy Market Regulation and was an associate at the law firm of Duane Morris, based in Washington, DC. Cara graduated from Princeton University with an AB in History and then received her Juris Doctor from Southern Methodist Dedman School of Law.
