

FTR FERC Order: Balancing Congestion

Ray Fernandez
Manager, Market Settlements Development
Market Settlements Subcommittee
March 16, 2017

- Revenue collected to fund FTR Target credits:
 - Day-ahead congestion revenue
 - Balancing congestion revenue (changing)
 - Market-to-market payments (changing)
 - FTR Auction revenue surplus
 - After all ARR Targets are fulfilled

- Revenue collected to fund FTR Target credits:
 - Day-ahead congestion revenue
 - Including DA M2M payments
 - FTR Auction revenue surplus
 - After all ARR Targets are fulfilled
- Balancing congestion including RT M2M payments now allocated to RT Load plus Exports, pro-rata RTO wide
 - Hourly calculation
 - New Billing Line Item/MSRS Report TBD

Line Item ID	Line Item Name	Line Item Effective Date	Comments
2211	Day Ahead Transmission Congestion Credit	6/1/2017	Formerly 2210 - Credits based of FTR Transactions
2215	Balancing Transmission Congestion Credit	6/1/2017	New BLI - Allocation of revenue from balancing congestion charges

- FTR Target Credits report does not change
- Transmission Congestion Charge Summary report does not change
- Report (new) for BLI 2215: Balancing Transmission Congestion Credit Summary