

Transmission Replacement Processes Senior Task Force (TRPSTF)

Aaron Berner

Markets and Reliability Committee
Special Session - Transparency &
End of Life Planning

January 15, 2020

January – May 2016

- Issue Introduction, formation of task force, and charter approval

May – August 2016

- Education, interest identification, Transmission cost sub-group formed

August 26, 2016

- FERC Show Cause Order Issued, group voted to continue cost sub-team work and suspend CBIR activities

September 29, 2016

- MRC approved TRPSTF temporary cessation until March 2017 (Transmission Cost sub-team work continued)

February 23, 2017

- Due to lack of quorum at FERC, extend hiatus 3 additional months (March-June)

June 22, 2017

- MRC declined to continue proposed TRPSTF hiatus until December 2017

July - August 2017

- TRPSTF restarted – discuss proceeding outside of elements associated with FERC Order to Show Cause, education of overlap in EOL under baseline and supplemental processes, additional interest identification

September 2017

- Discuss response to FERC Order

October 2017 – February 2018

- Design component development, definitions

February 15, 2018: FERC Show Cause Order (Attachment M-3 Process)

- FERC Order directs PJM TOs to convene a minimum of 3 separate meetings to address assumptions, needs, and solutions – PJM and the PJM TOs are using this process for Supplemental Project planning

February – June 2018

- Design component and package development

July 26, 2018

- Markets and Reliability Committee sunsets the Transmission Replacement Process Sr. Task Force
- Begin efforts to develop manual language at the MRC

August – December 2018

- MRC special sessions to discuss Manual 14B language

January 24, 2019

- MRC Manual 14B