Resource Tracker Requirements

Problem / Opportunity Statement

The Resource Tracker tool was created in 2013 to support the maintenance of unit ownership information. The tool allows for owners to report discrepancies and ensure the data is accurate. In a recent review of the Resource Tracker User Guide, PJM determined that the User Guide is the only reference providing documentation of requirements associated with deadlines and tasks required by unit owners.