

AFMTF Poll Results

Dave Anders, Director

AFMTF

July 22, 2020

- Purpose
  - Gauge stakeholder interest in the AFMTF going on hiatus during the consultant's review of the ARR/FTR market, or work interest for the AFMTF during the consultant's review
- Timeline
  - Responses accepted from 7/9/2020 through 7/16/2020
- Responses
  - 140 total responses
    - 88 Voting Members, 50 Affiliates, 2 OPSI

- Do you support going on temporary hiatus until the consultant's work is complete?
  - Yes
    - 124 or 89%
  - No
    - 16 or 11%

- Should the task force not go on hiatus, what specific items do you support continuing with? (Please check all that apply.)
  - Potential changes to the FTR construct to enhance commercial usability
    - 45 or 32%
  - Potential changes to enhance data/model transparency
    - 86 or 62%
  - Other (please specify)
    - See next slide

- Consultant updates
- Refine Off Peak FTR products
- Change from market to direct allocation payments
- Hiatus/None
- Further protections against defaults
- Happy with current construct
- Potential changes to eliminate unnecessary products or enhance useful products
- Review of technical platform
- Vague choices
- Treatment of IARRs
- Analysis of existing construct

Facilitator:

Dave Anders, David.Anders@pjm.com

Secretary:

Emmy Messina, Emmy.Messina@pjm.com

AFMTF Poll Results

Member Hotline

(610) 666 – 8980

(866) 400 – 8980

custsvc@pjm.com