

ARR/FTR Markets Task Force Workshop Survey

DRAFT - ARR/FTR Markets Task Force Workshop Survey

Purpose of Poll

The poll questions are based on London Economics International (LEI) recommendations with an exclusive focus on the recommendations that need stakeholder involvement. The LEI recommendations can be found at this link.

Please indicate your interest in each of these categories by noting if your interest is High, Medium, or Low.

	High	Medium	Low
A - Develop an objective definition of equity; establish a more detailed understanding of zonal patterns of congestion	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
B - Expand biddable points and time of use periods for ARRs	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
C - Add flexibility to self-scheduling rules	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
D - Explore alternatives to historical path assignment of ARRs	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
E - Explore alternative allocation approaches for distributing surplus congestion	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
F - Determine a minimum premium for options	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
G - Evaluate changes to the current FTR forfeiture rule	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

Display This Question:

If Please indicate your interest in each of these categories by noting if your interest is High, Med... [High] (Count) > 3

Please indicate your top 3 high interest categories from your high choices above.

First (1) _____

Second (2) _____

Third (3) _____

Please share a discussion topic related to ARR and/or FTR that may not have been part of LEI report but the task force should consider.
