

Reactive Power Compensation Task Force (RPCTF)

Polling Questions

August 1, 2022

* Required Responses

1. Do you believe a change is needed to the current Reactive Power Schedule
2 compensation method? *
 - If Yes why?

 - If No, why not?

2. Do you believe a cost of service model should be used for reactive compensation? (Yes/No)
 - If yes, “Do you believe the AEP methodology is an accurate determination for generator reactive costs”?

 - If no, why not?

3. Do you believe it is important to implement a reactive power performance analysis with incentives and penalties? (Yes/No)

4. Can you support Package A (ODEC)? (Yes/No) *
5. Can you support Package B (CEC)? (Yes/No) *
6. Can you support Package E (PJM)? (Yes/No) *
7. Can you support Package F (IMM)? (Yes/No) *

8. Please rank your preference of the four package from most support to least support. *

- Package A (ODEC)
- Package B (CEC)
- Package E (PJM)
- Package F (IMM)

9. Do you have any other comments regarding Reactive Power Compensation? (Open Comment)

- Matrix link as of July 27, 2022:

<https://www.pjm.com/-/media/committees-groups/task-forces/rpctf/2022/20220801/item-01---matrix.ashx>

Facilitator:
Diane Lake, Diane.Lake@pjm.com

Secretary:
Risa Holland,
Risa.Holland@pjm.com

SME/Presenter:
Glen Boyle, Glen.Boyle@pjm.com

Member Hotline

(610) 666 – 8980

(866) 400 – 8980

custsvc@pjm.com