

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
BEFORE THE
FEDERAL ENERGY REGULATORY COMMISSION

Affirmed Energy LLC

v.

PJM Interconnection, L.L.C.

Docket No. EL24-124

JOINT NOTICE OF ABEYANCE

PJM Interconnection, L.L.C. (“PJM”) and Affirmed Energy LLC (“Affirmed”) respectfully submit this joint notice requesting that the Commission hold the above-captioned proceeding in abeyance until Monday, January 20, 2025.<sup>1</sup>

On July 15, 2024, PJM and Affirmed filed a joint motion in the above-captioned proceeding requesting that the Commission stay the proceeding through September 30, 2024, and extend the period for answers to the complaint to October 30, 2024. The Commission granted that extension on July 18, 2024. On October 29, 2024, PJM and Affirmed jointly requested a further extension of the deadline for answers and comments until November 11, 2024, which the Commission granted on October 30, 2024.

PJM and Affirmed are continuing to engage in discussions over the status of PJM’s withholding of Affirmed’s collateral, the subject of Affirmed’s complaint. To ensure the parties can continue these negotiations, and in light of the upcoming holidays in November and December, PJM and Affirmed request a short abeyance of this proceeding until January 20, 2025. Holding the proceeding in abeyance will increase the likelihood that the parties can resolve their dispute, thereby obviating the need for Commission action. Moreover, a brief abeyance of the proceeding will not prejudice any party to this proceeding. Good cause thus exists for the Commission to grant this joint request for abeyance.

<sup>1</sup> Considering that this abeyance is necessary for the complainant and respondent in this proceeding to further engage in settlement talks, Affirmed and PJM do not view this abeyance to require a motion. Out of an abundance of caution, we alternatively submit this request pursuant to Rule 212 of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission’s Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 C.F.R. § 385.212.

Respectfully submitted,
