Attention: Sandra E. Rizzo and Chenchao Lu

Dear Ms. Rizzo and Mr. Lu:

1. On July 16, 2024, pursuant to Rule 206 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure,<sup>1</sup> Enerwise Global Technologies, LLC d/b/a CPower (CPower) filed a complaint against PJM Interconnection, L.L.C. (PJM). CPower asserts that the June 13, 2024 guidance document PJM sent to Energy Efficiency providers violated PJM's Open Access Transmission Tariff and was prejudicially improper, unjust and unreasonable, and unduly discriminatory (Complaint).<sup>2</sup> On September 27, 2024, CPower and PJM filed a joint

<sup>2</sup> Complaint at 21. Specifically, CPower stated that its concerns related to (1) limiting capacity values to approved installation periods in a submitter's measurement and verification (M&V) plan and providing that PJM "will only accept [Post-Installation M&V] Reports for eligible installation periods approved in the M&V plan"; (2) setting the standard baseline for general lighting as a residential LED bulb; and (3) imposing a new requirement that Energy Efficiency providers submit the M&V plans directly to motion to dismiss the Complaint and a stipulated satisfaction and withdrawal agreement (Agreement). As discussed below, we grant the joint motion to dismiss.

2. PJM and CPower state that the Complaint “will be satisfied through the Commission’s acceptance of the [Agreement].”<sup>3</sup> The Agreement provides that CPower is permitted to retain revenues from certain energy efficiency savings for the 2023/2024 and 2024/2025 Delivery Years and that CPower agrees not to file any new complaints against PJM relating to the energy efficiency audit that was conducted for the 2023/2024 Delivery Year or a protest in response to PJM’s Federal Power Act (FPA) section 205 filing in Docket No. ER24-2995-000.

3. No party to this proceeding opposes the motion to dismiss and, pursuant to Rule 206 (j) of the Commission’s regulations, we see no need for additional information.<sup>4</sup> Accordingly, we grant the joint motion to dismiss. The Complaint filed in Docket No. EL24-128-000 is hereby dismissed, and the proceeding is hereby terminated.

By direction of the Commission.

Debbie-Anne A. Reese,
Secretary.
