Architectural River Cruise Departs the Drake at 1 p.m.	In the world of iconic architecture, only a few images are so instantly recognized that they need no subtitle – and the unmistakable skyline of Chicago is certainly amongst them. Each year, thousands of architecture lovers make a pilgrimage to this birthplace of the skyscraper. Guests will see more than 40 Chicago landmarks, including Tribune Tower, Wrigley Building and Marina City, and the many buildings currently under construction.	This river tour is widely considered the best 75 minutes a visitor can spend anywhere in the city. This tour is ever changing – no two are ever alike – and includes two beverages per person.
Craft Brews & City Views Departs the Drake at 1 p.m.	Chicago's craft beer scene enthusiastically taps into the rich history of its home city. What better way to travel from brewery to brewery than in a Prohibition-era styled wood barrel bus? While guests are driven between locations, they will learn about the history of Chicago's beer industry, originating in the 1800s. At the onset, guests will be divided into two groups, and at each brewery guests will encounter unique experiences. Samples of craft beer will be provided at each of the three locations, as well as a tour of one of the production facilities. Locations visited may include Revolution Brewing, Lagunitas and Motor Row Brewing, to name a few.	Tour duration is approximately 2.5 hours; please advise if you require a non-alcoholic beverage sample.
